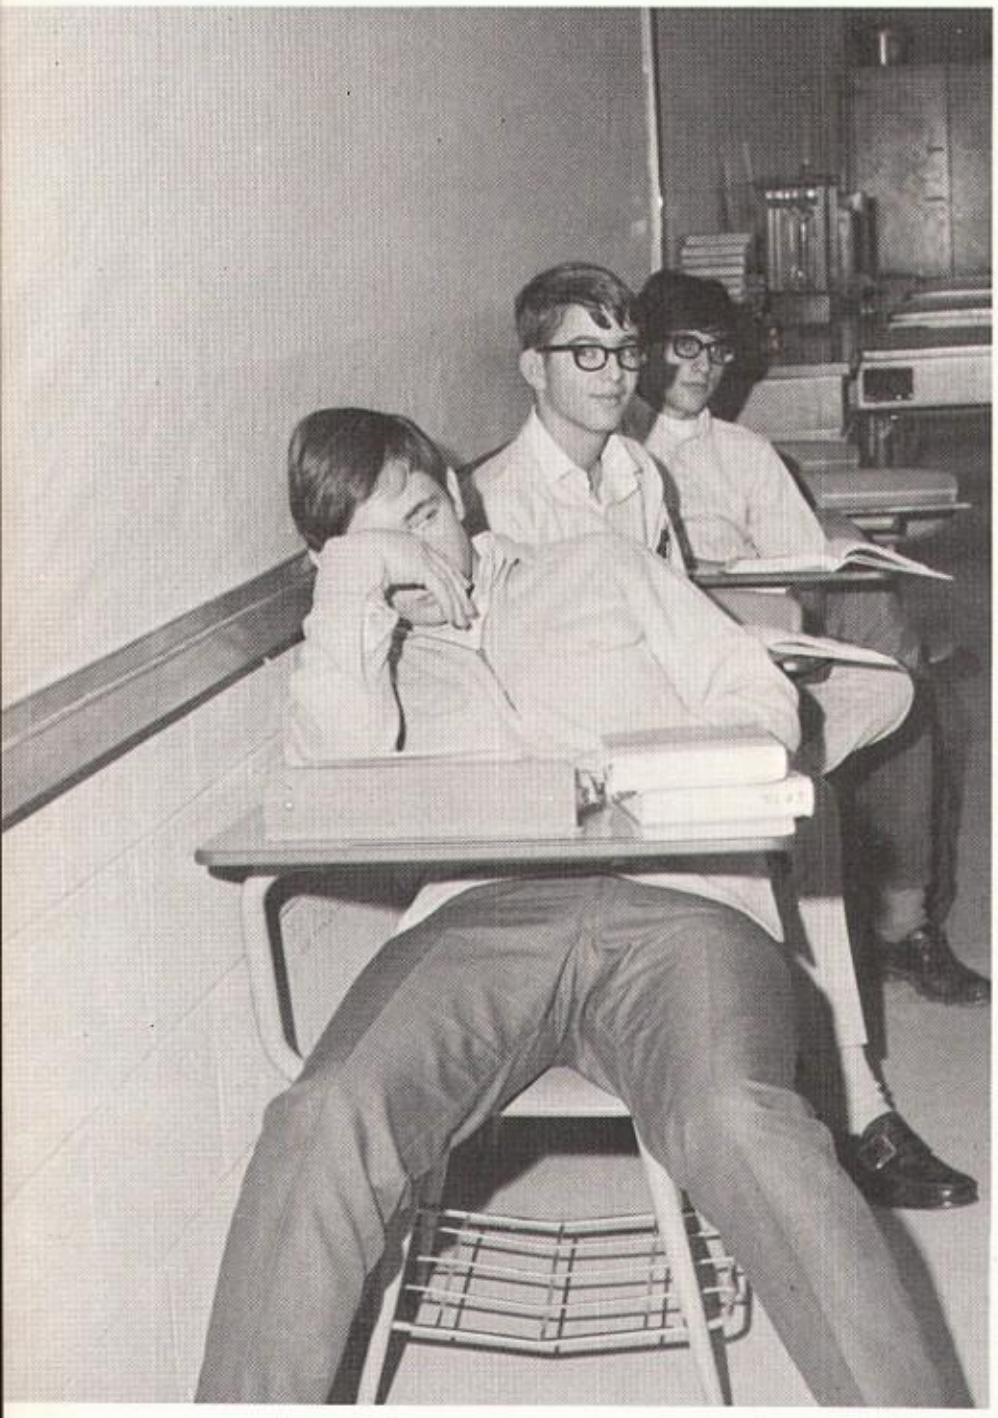
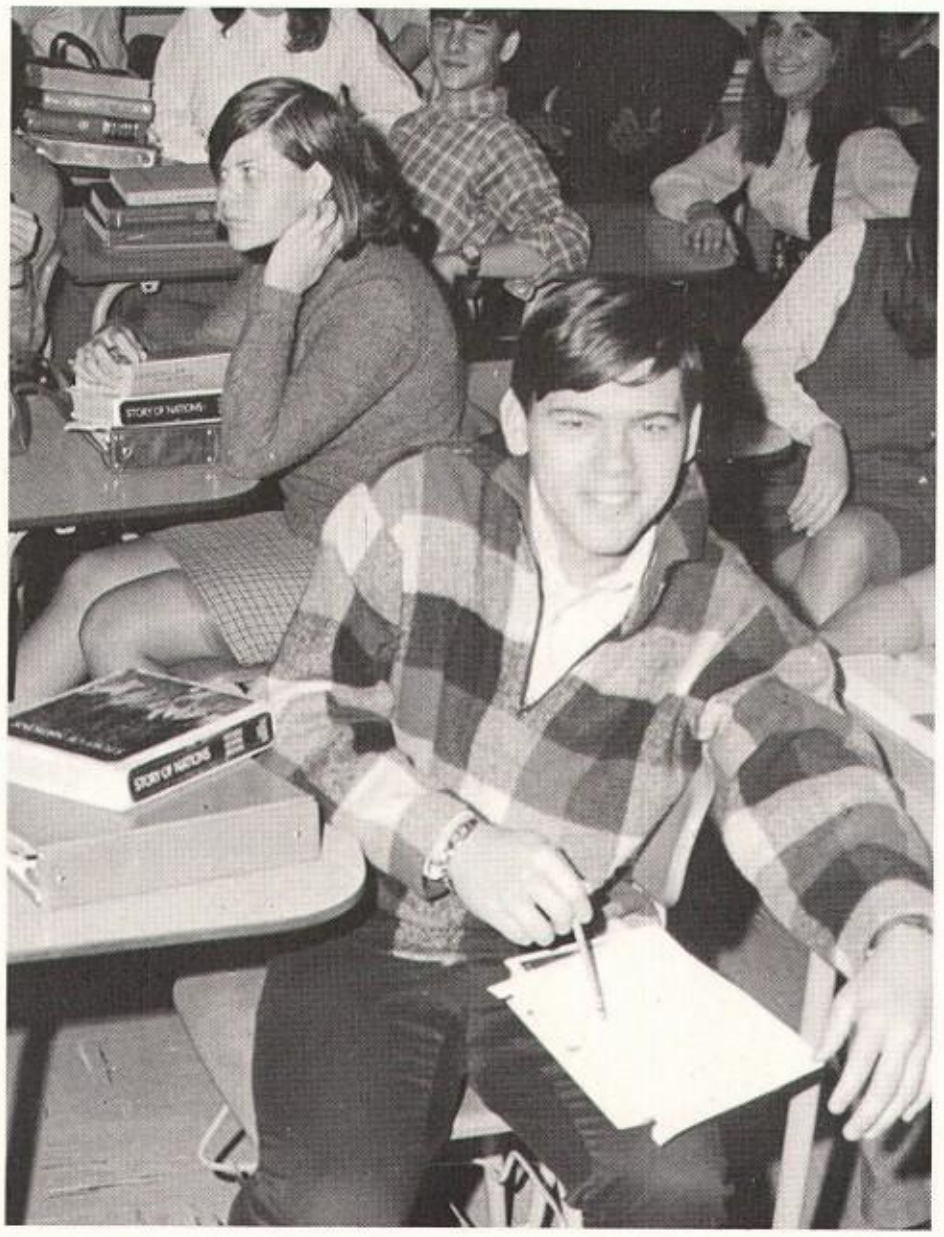
IN THE FALL:





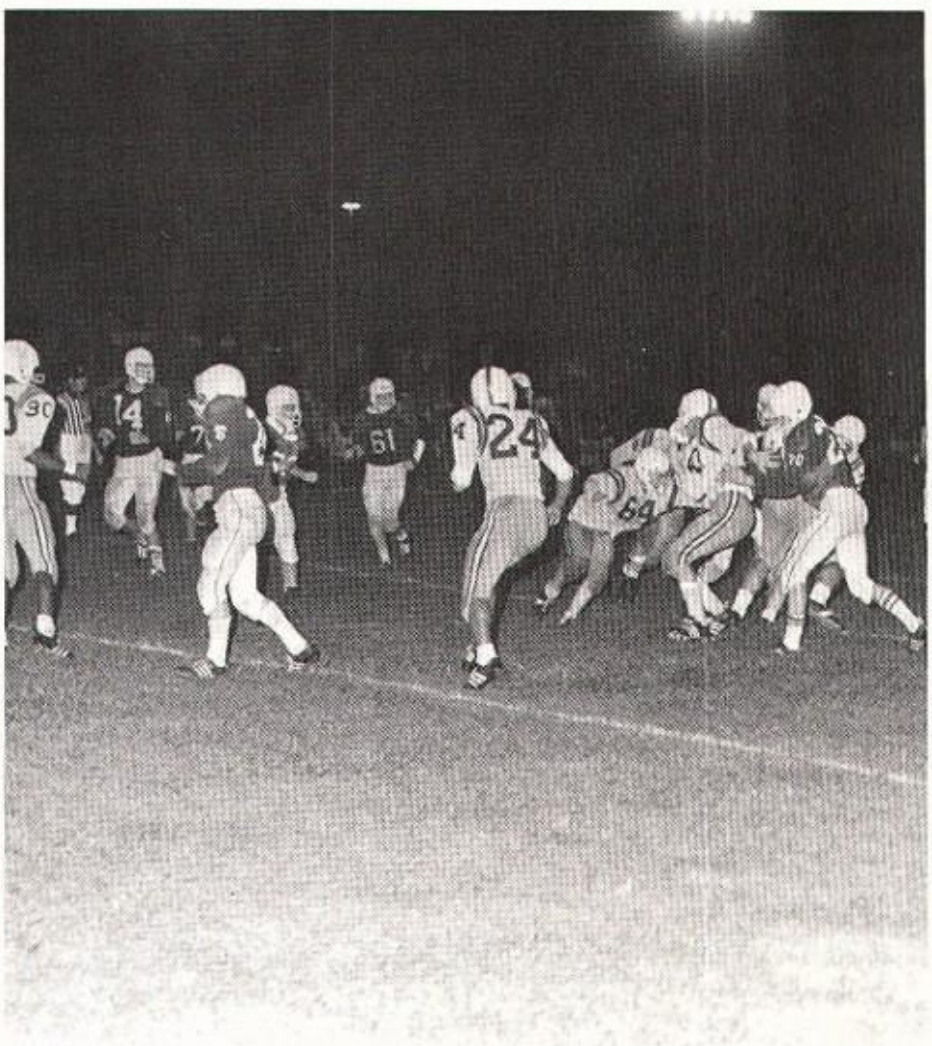
classes begin anew,

cheerleaders
begin their
daily practice,

Friday afternoon pep rallies are held,

and then there's homecoming.

football games are won,



IN THE WINTER:

three one act plays are presented,

Christmas is observed,

the basketball team
bounces
into action,

and two queens are
chosen and kissed–
a Basketball Queen

and Miss Eagle.

IN THE SPRING:

students'
minds wander,
and their fancies
turn to thoughts
of anything
but school.

They long to be outside, if only
for a few moments.

Even the teachers
long for a rest.

and the baseball
fans rejoice as
practice and play
begin.

The track team
spends hours running

IN THE SUMMER:

Trees blossom,

P.E. classes move
outdoors,

and

the tennis team enjoys
a few minutes
of leisure
from practice.

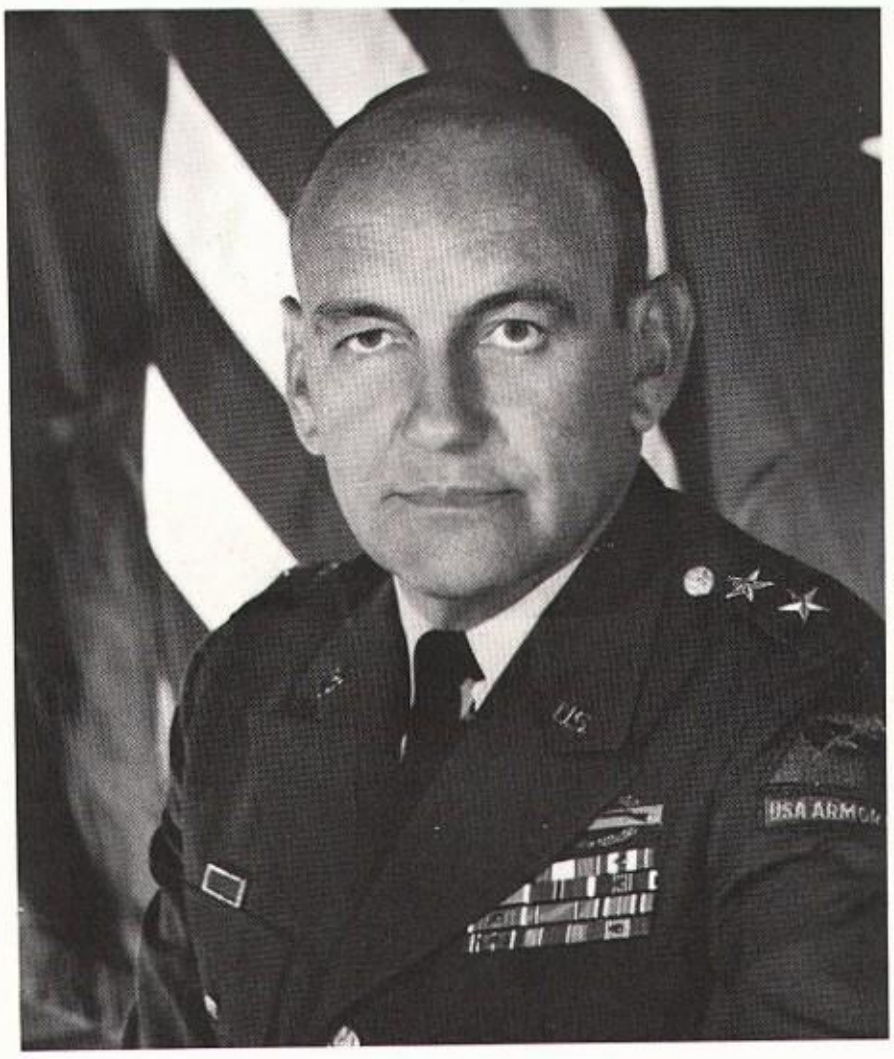
With seniors looking forward to graduation, the entire school assembles to honor outstanding students.

The final day arrives and the last bus is boarded to end another school.

Band practice, however, goes on, preparing for fall and another school year.

ADMINISTRATION AND

FACULTY



To the members of the Senior Class of Fort Knox High School I extend my most sincere congratulations. I commend you for having reached this important milestone in your life. I appreciate the efforts you have made and some of the sacrifices you have endured to reach this point in your life. I am sure the personal satisfaction that you have experienced will more than compensate for the efforts expended.

You each have a contribution to make in the adult world. To be most effective I urge you to continue with your studies and to obtain all the education and training possible. Your contribution to our world may not take the form of footprints on the moon, but should be just as personally rewarding. Regardless of your chosen profession you must accept the responsibilities that accompany every worthwhile accomplishment.

I wish you God speed and the success you so richly deserve.

SENIORS LEAD THE WAY

We've got

We're the class of 7-0!

Senior Class President—DAVID DAYTON

To the Seniors:

As we approach the completion of our high school careers and the commencement of our lives in the adult world, we, the Seniors, can look back on this year past with merited pride. The Class of 1970 has attained excellence both in academic achievement and in athletic accomplishment. Our spirit, determination, and industry have made this year an unquestionable success. As we separate shortly, each to his own destiny, let us be resolved that we will retain our lofty ideals, exploit our God-given abilities, develop our limitless potentialities, and employ our sound education in the pursuit of personal fulfillment and universal peace.

I extend my best wishes and highest regards to each of you. May the memories recorded in this book be a constant source of comfort and encouragement in future years.

Homecoming '69 was:

a parade,

The traditional Homecoming Day festivities began precisely at 1:00 p.m. on October 24 with the dismissal of classes. The band, leading the way, set the pace for a rousing, spirited pep rally. Seniors Bobby Elliott, Sandy Stapp, and Chuck Armstrong led their class to victory in the Yell Leader Contest. The decorated cars were judged, and John Farrar accepted the prize for the winning Junior Class.

The Homecoming Court was then presented to the student body. Ann Kersting, representing KAPA, presented Karren Pope, Jennifer Kimball, Charleen Benge, Brenda Curran, Lenora Stephens, and Paula Grigas with silver charms to commemorate the occasion.

Showing their school spirit, the basketball team entertained the student body with a mock football game depicting the skill of the Eagle football team and forecasting their victory.

To highlight the exciting day, Karren Pope was ceremoniously crowned 1969 Homecoming Queen during the half time activities at the game that night. The Eagle football team topped the mood by smashing Breckenridge County, 41-0.

Under the Direction of Miss Margret Corvino

Miss Corvino gives a few tips about acting.

Debbie and Jennifer were main characters in the play Early Frost.

What's the matter Gerry?

Will the bad guys win? Does crime really pay? . . .

. . . Of course not!

On November 13 and 14 the Fort Knox Players presented three one-act plays: Early Frost, a drama by Douglass Parkhirst; Ring Around the Corpse, a mystery by R. A. Anderson and Everett Marston; and Parted on Her Wedding Morn, a melodrama by Leland Price.

Lon Durbin ingeniously explains how the diabolical crime was committed.

I know the string to make her talk was here yesterday!

Jane Bass tries to make Debbie age quickly.

Jim Walz finds Steve Elliott hard to believe.

Christmas 1969

The Music Department presented a vocal and instrumental concert December 19, 1969, for the enjoyment of the students and faculty. The concert choir, under the direction of Mrs. Abbott, sang several Christmas selections. The band, under the direction of Mr. Johns, concluded the first half of the program. After a brief intermission, the members of the chorus presented a musical version of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol".

Its purpose, as stated in its bylaws, is a) "To educate young people with respect to credit union procedures, savings benefits, credit costs, and moral responsibility;" and b) "To promote thrift and savings among its members, and to create a recognized and approved source of credit at reasonable rates of interest for provident and productive purposes."

SPECIAL SERVICES
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Special Services? What is that? Who can participate? When? Where? What does it cost?
Do you know the answers to these questions? Read on then, y'all, read on! "Special Services" means Recreation (Army-type):
Programs and Facilities. Dependents can participate, too; your ID card is your admission ticket.
So what do we have to offer?

4 Theaters, plus a new one now under construction. Most shows 35 cents, a few at 50 cents.

4 Bowling Alley Establishments—66 lanes; cost 40 cents a game.

3 Field House/Gyms, plus new gym in Disney Barracks Area. Gammon Field House has heated indoor pool.

5 Outdoor Swimming Pools, open on Memorial Day, plus new pool at Anderson Golf Course.

Main Library plus 5 branch libraries, to help you with some of your homework problems.

18-hole Golf Course (Anderson Golf Course) on Wilson Road. If your Dad purchased an annual family ticket, you can play as often as you like at no additional cost. Watch for opening of new 9-hole par 3 golf course near Anderson. This will be night-lighted and will only cost 75 cents per round of play.

3 Crafts Shops—If you know how to repair your family car, or build items of furniture, or if you can develop and print photographs, or any of the other more popular crafts, we suggest you visit the Multiple Craft Shop on Knox Street (north of Four Seasons) or the Auto Repair and Woodworking Shops on 7th Avenue at Ireland Street. You can procure the material you need right here and at discount prices.

Youth Activities—Last, but not least, there is the Youth Activities Program. We mention this because we presume you know all about this. But as a reminder—Youth Center is behind Godman Chapel. It is the focal point for co-ordinating all scouting activities (both girls and boy), for setting up and conducting tours for visiting youth groups, for planning and conducting the special summer months programs, for organizing and running a sports program for each of the major sports seasons and for operating the "TAHO" Club, which you surely must have found by now. Costs you $1 a month, or $2.50 for 3 months if you so desire. This entitles you to hang-out privileges as well as for weekly dances and other scheduled functions.

SO—Any questions? If so—Call

Special Services Officer 4-1256/4-4251

or
